Madison Organizing in Strength, Equality, and Solidarity
for Criminal Justice Reform

MOSES Individual Membership Form

What is MOSES?

MOSES (Madison Organizing in Strength, Equality and Solidarity) is a grassroots, interfaith organization working in the Madison area that unites congregations, individuals and non-profit organizations to build a better community. We join together to take action on social justice issues affected by public policy, beginning with the problems of mass incarceration and mass supervision in Wisconsin.

Why does MOSES need members?

MOSES seeks to:

- Deliver a message of hope, healing, and unity that reaches beyond the divisions of race, creed, and social-economic barriers
- Build solid relationships with one another and with the greater community.
- Identify and take action on root causes of poverty, oppression, and injustice.
- Empower and train leaders to respond to injustices at the local, state, and national level.
- Be agents of change that build upon and create strong and just communities

These goals are not easy ones, but MOSES is committed to justice work for the long haul, and we need congregational and individual members to come together to make sure that we have the resources to meet our commitment.

Members are recognized at four levels of annual financial support:

- Friends ($5-$24)
- Patrons ($25-$119)
- Sustainers ($120-$999)
- Underwriters ($1,000 or more)

For Sustainers and Underwriters, payments may be made in monthly installments by electronic funds transfer. Will you join us? There is an enrollment form on the reverse.

MOSES is an affiliate of the statewide network.
